

Music Newsletter

Miss Raison and I are busily teaching our Wang West musicians the rituals and routines of the music room. We are looking for students to know how to play instruments individually and with others whilst always being mindful and respectful. We are starting off the year with 'The Elements of Music'. Students will learn about pitch, form, rhythm, meter, duration, dynamics, tempo, and timbre. We're so excited to sing, play and grow.